Death is ruled strangling

A woman whose body was discovered Monday in a field behind a condominium complex in Grove City was probably strangled manually, the Franklin County coroner, Dr. William Adrion, said Tuesday.

Although Adrion had not identified the body, he said he was able to determine the woman was about 40 years old and she had been dead from 24 to 36 hours before the body was found about 4:30 p.m. Monday.

A resident of the Auburn Village Condominiums found the body in a grassy field 50 yards behind the complex, police said.

The body of the woman, who was black, was fully clothed, police said.

Adrion would not say whether the woman had been raped.

"Some of the elements of this case are bizarre," Adrion said. "This is not a normal, run-of-the-mill homicide, because of the manner of death, where she was found, and other elements."

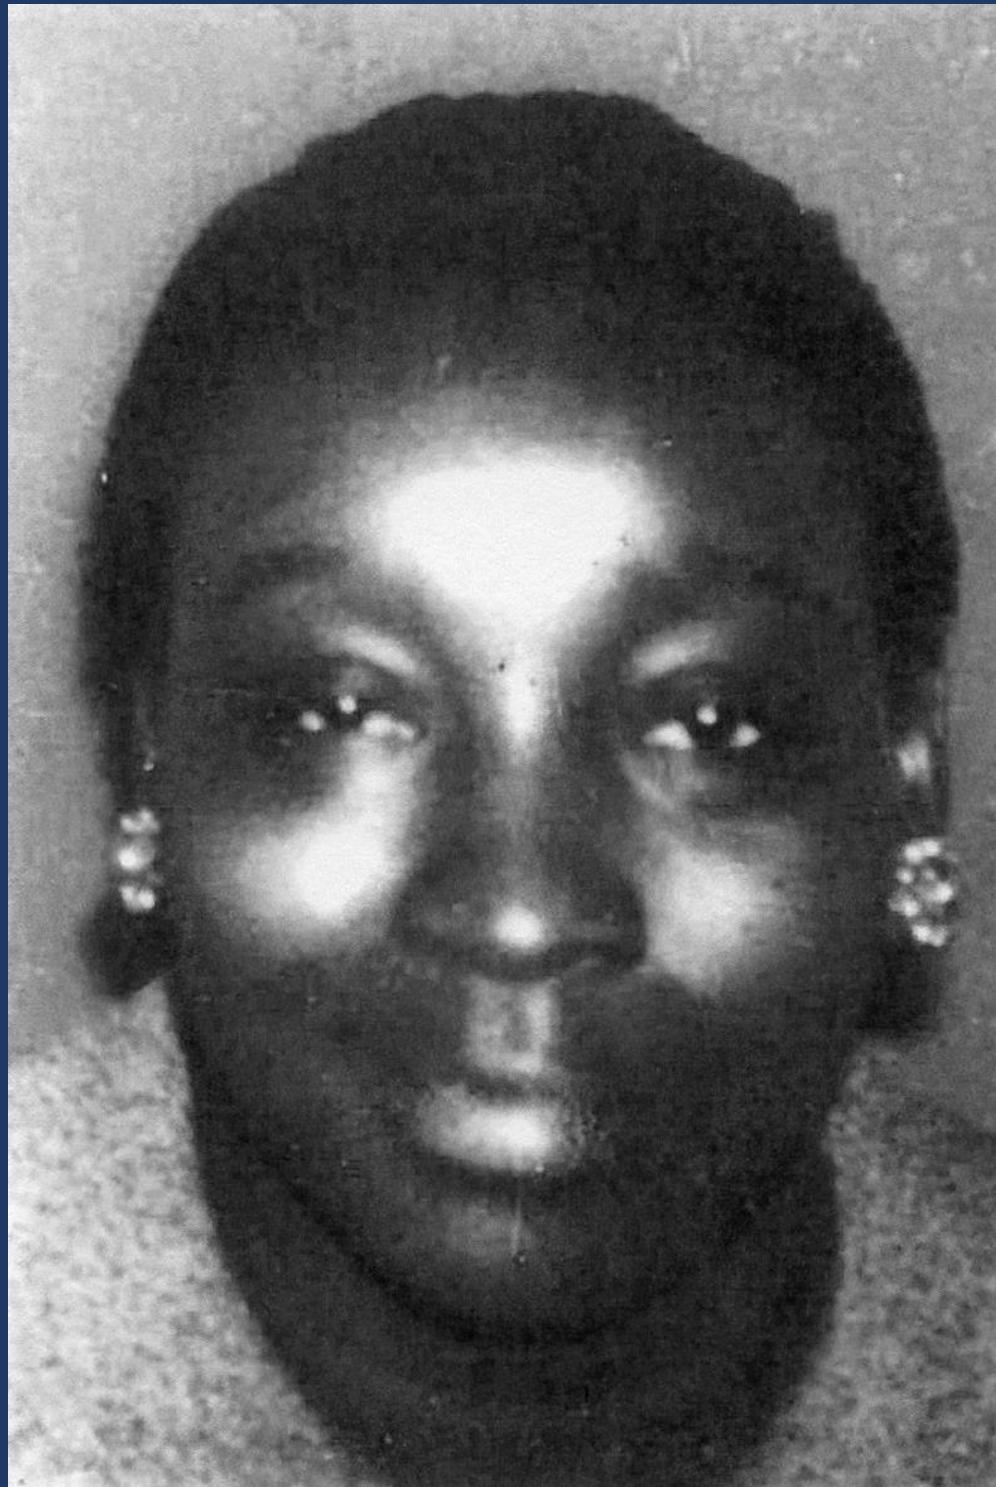

He would not elaborate further.

“Some of the elements of this case are bizarre”

“This is not a normal, run-of-the-mill homicide”

Body in field identified as Cincinnati mother of 3

A black woman found dead Monday in a field off Hoover Rd. has been identified as Anna Stewart, 33, of Cincinnati.

Stewart, who was strangled, had been listed as a missing person by the Cincinnati police since Sunday.

Officer Linda Day of Cincinnati's Youth Aid Section, which handles missing person cases, said Stewart, a mother of three, was reported last seen about 4:30 p.m. on Oct. 6.

The identification was made from a sketch released by Grove City police after local authorities were unable to identify the woman.

Day said Stewart and another woman went to a Kroger's store about two blocks from her home on Oct. 6. The other woman told police an unidentified man gave the two a ride back from the store.

Day said the woman told police the man dropped her off and left with Stewart in the car.

Stewart's three children last saw her, Day said, at about 8 a.m. Oct. 6 when they left for school.

Aid sought in slaying probe

Police are asking for help in their investigation of the slaying of Anna Stewart, 33, of 1629 Walnut St., Over-the-Rhine.

Ms. Stewart's body was found Oct. 12 in a field in Grove City, near Columbus.

She was last seen on Oct. 6 as she was getting out of a taxicab at General Hospital on Goodman Street and was reported missing Oct. 11.

Police Specialist Dan Jones of the Cincinnati Homicide Squad said anyone who saw Ms. Stewart after Oct. 6 is asked to call 352-3520 or detective headquarters in Grove City at 614-875-6549.

According to Jones, Ms. Stewart told the driver of the cab that she was going to see her sister at the hospital.

A coroner's report showed that she died of manual strangulation.
